Happy Christmas! This is the last Sunday of Advent; I am saying it as though any one needed a reminder. Well, maybe a reminder for me for a start would be useful, to begin to take stock of all that has transpired so far. At the beginning of Advent this year, I tasked myself to do some things in order to better my life as a Christian. Did I achieve those goals that I set for myself? This should be our line of self examination. I am towing this line of thought because, like me, so many are excited about the fact that Advent is ending; yes it is ending for this round of liturgical season, but it is an end that should be ushering us into a new beginning of life in Christ. This period of Advent, I have been posing a very fundamental question; what is the most important thing in life? If you followed your Advent goals diligently, you must have discovered what real life is and what is most important to you as a Christian. At this point in time, our hearts should be ready to receive the baby Jesus after all the period of preparation. My prayer is that the baby Jesus be born anew in your life. Amen.
 Merry Christmas and a happy new year!

Fr. Anthony

Come home for Christmas: please take one of the coloured invitations from Advent Room and invite some people you know to join us here for Christmas Mass! And see posters in Advent Room

Theatre Club - newsletters with super shows for 2009, available in Advent Room - book now! Limited seats available

Christmas Masses - thank you to all who have volunteered to help with welcoming, offertory, reading, Eucharistic Ministry & Sacristan duties for our Christmas Masses. Most slots have now been allocated but there are some gaps still needing volunteers; see poster in Advent Room

Calling all Angels and Shepherds.... Come and join us at the Christmas Eve Children's Service at 5pm. The service will reflect on the Christmas story, with a modern day twist. Father Anthony will also be sharing his experiences as a child in Nigeria at Christmas. All the children are encouraged to bring gifts with them - of tins of food, which we will donate to the Reading homeless drop-in centre CIRDIC after the service and in time for Christmas. NB Adults are encouraged only to attend if accompanied by a child!

Advent Giving Tree - Many thanks to all parishioners for the many donations we received. These will soon all be taken to the CIRDIC (Churches in Reading Drop-In Centre), and will surely make a world of difference to all those visiting them this Christmas. Thank you!

OUR CHRISTMAS MASS TIMES - as shown on green leaflets & orange posters:
 Christmas Eve: Wed. 24th Dec.: Children's Carol Service (NOT Mass) - starts at 5pm
Midnight Mass (preceded by carols): starts at 11.30pm
 Christmas Day: Thurs. 25th Dec.: 9am and 11am
 - please remember there is NO 5pm Mass on Christmas Day!

On Sunday 4th January we warmly welcome to our parish community Isobelle Sara Renée Wills and her family as we celebrate her baptism at 11am Mass

The Parish Pantomime group is proud to present Panto 2009 - 'Oh no, not another opening of another show' starring altar servers, young readers, members of the children's liturgy group, the cub pack, the confirmation group and parish youth (along with assorted others). This will be performed on Sat. 17th January at 2.30pm & 7.00pm.
Tickets: £5 family, £2 individual - on sale after all Masses on Sunday 11th January

From Catholic Children's Society: As you will be aware, the Government's new Equality legislation has presented significant challenges for Catholic Adoption Agencies. In consultation with the Bishops of Arundel & Brighton, Southwark and Portsmouth, our own diocesan agency has taken the decision to comply with legislation in order to safeguard its wide range of services to children, young people and families. In order to do this the Catholic Children's Society will be working under the new name of Cabrini Children's Society from 1st January 2009

PARISH BAPTISMS - the first of our quarterly Parish Baptism Preparation sessions will be held on Tuesday 20th & Tuesday 27th January, each starting at 8pm. If you wish to celebrate a baptism please complete a baptism form (available in Advent Room) and return it to Parish Office as soon as possible, then turn up on 20th January!
