Catholics in Royal Berkshire Hospital

Contact duty priest: 0118 3227105.

Catholics in RBH: Catholic patients at the RBH, relatives or friends should explain to staff that they request a visit from a Catholic priest in cases of serious illness. Due to recent changes, Priests can now more readily respond to requests to visit the sick in hospital. We have a team of Catholic priests in Reading who are available for this Ministry, so it is hoped that no Catholic patient at the RBH will die without the Last Rites.

2nd Sunday of Christmas

Year B

3rd January 2021

Blessed New Year 2021!

Thanks to the uncertainties of the year 2020, it has become clear that not everyone truly lives, that we all too quickly give up our authentic freedom and we put all our trust in medicine, technology and analytical prognoses before we start living our life again. As they are out rooted from God, thanks to the current crisis we distinguish souls of many and whole systems which are half dead with increasingly evident destructive effects. Where the superficial lifestyle, inconsistent and deceptive, that often sweeps us along, overwhelms us and makes us slaves to evil or at any rate prisoners of moral mediocrity.

However, what is even more beautiful, we experience that God is more active and He has been making cracks in our individual and public security systems and in organised agendas of many protagonists.

God is fighting in us and for us. It will demand more than usual but is His calling for restoration. He will stop this train rushing to the abyss and we only need to help Him and never be afraid. "I wish it need not have happened in my time," said Frodo. "So do I," said Gandalf, "and so do all who live to see such times. But that is not for them to decide. All we have to decide is what to do with the time that is given us."

As the resolution for 2021, we desperately need to change direction in the journey of life; not small adjustments, but with a true and proper turn. We must enter this kind of great reset and start swimming against the tide. New Year's resolutions are the perfect opportunity for all of us to stress the overriding priority of making God present in this world and to show men and women the way to God. Yet, not just any god, not a pluralism of faiths and gods, but the God who spoke on Sinai; to that God whose face we recognise in a love which presses "to the end" (cf. Jn 13:1) – in Jesus Christ, born in a manger from the Virgin Mary, crucified and risen. Hence we must often recite the Creed and consecrate ourselves to Mary and remain under the protection of St Joseph, re-discover our unity with the Crucified Lord by rejecting sins, coming back to good confession, making acts of Sacrifice, Penance and Prayer, especially Adoration and Rosary

With many prayers for the coming year, and blessings.

Fr Stan
